PASS PATHWAYS

A School-to-College-to-Work Initiative

www.passpathways.on.ca

PASS pathways are open to you if your school offers the “pathway” courses.

Loyalist College

If you are interested in “Hospitality and Tourism”, “Electronics, Photonics and Electro-Mechanical Technology”, “Business” or “Adventure and Outdoor Training”, please register for a PASS Pathway NOW. More information can be found on our website or from your school’s Student Services Department.

Important Benefits for Students Completing one of the PASS Pathways

- ◆ an articulated entry into Algonquin, Loyalist or St. Lawrence College programs;
- ◆ a flexible plan for your high school career
- ◆ an informed awareness of college programs and career opportunities
- ◆ academic learning supported with experiential career opportunities
- ◆ frequent contact by the three colleges to keep students informed of key programs
- ◆ receive a PASS Certificate upon graduation

How Do I Register?

- ◆ Check off the courses that you must take for your pathway on the back of this form
- ◆ Check off the courses you must take for this pathway on your school course selection (option) form
- ◆ Return the forms, signed by your parents, to the school by the due date

Guidance Staff Instructions

- ◆ Fax the registration forms to the registrars of all three colleges after the course selection completion in the Spring (Fax numbers are listed below for your convenience)
- ◆ Establish a database file for the PASS registrants
- ◆ In the graduating year, at the time of College OCAS registration, sign the registration form for potential PASS graduates, fill in the student’s OCAS number, and fax the form to the three colleges so that they can collate the OCAS applications of PASS candidates.

At the June graduation

- ◆ review registrants for PASS pathway completion
- ◆ issue a PASS certificate
- ◆ forward the list of PASS graduates to the three colleges
